

The above chart is a suggestive representation of the inter-relationship which exists between the physician, his Pediatric Society, and the child in the various environments in which it is found.

Figure 1: Paediatricist in the community

Source: Bradley 1915